

Nick Warren

Nick has been a Parish Councillor since 2011 representing Icklesham Ward of Icklesham Parish Council. He is currently the Chairperson of the Council's Planning Committee. He lives with his wife Kim in Icklesham village and following 40 years in banking is now employed as Manager of Hastings & St Leonards Christians Against Poverty Debt Centre (helping people out of unmanageable debt), leading a team of one other employee and over 40 volunteers.

Nick is:

- Secretary to The Icklesham Trust Committee (manages Icklesham Memorial Hall & Sports Pavilion).
- Treasurer of Icklesham Parish Community Land Trust Ltd (project to build affordable housing for people/families who have an existing local connection).
- A Senior Street Pastor in Hastings.
- A Church Elder at St Helens Anglican Church, Hastings.
- Treasurer to Rye & District Labour Party.
- A member of UNITE trade union.
- Member of Icklesham Robin Hood Bonfire Society
- Member of Icklesham Art Club
- Member of The Fieldstone Boys – skiffle revival band

Nick's wife, Kim, is a Senior Occupational Therapist working for the local Mental Health NHS Trust and they have lived in Icklesham for 18 years.

Nick has two daughters (and son in laws) and three grandsons.
